Staff:

Camp Director

Victor Kotynski

Now in his second season, former men's soccer captain Victor Kotynski joined head coach Manfred Schellscheidt's staff as an assistant coach in 2007. A 2006 graduate, Kotynski played in four NCAA Tournaments as a Pirate and was a member of two teams that finished ranked in the top 25 nationally.

Kotynski has remained an active player since graduating, playing two matches this year with the New York Red Bulls reserve team after spending two months with the Charleston Battery of the "A" League.

Kotynski has developed his coaching skills at several stops, including time with the Arsenal Premier club team, the World Class Soccer Camp, the Jersey Elite Soccer Camp. He currently is the assistant coach of the Newark Ironbound Express which compete in the USL's Premier Development League.

SHU Head Coach Manfred Schellscheidt

One of the most renowned soccer coaches in the United States, Manfred Schellscheidt enters his 21st year as the head coach of the Seton Hall men's soccer program. A committed teacher of the game of soccer, he has enjoyed a distinguished career at every stop from the youth to international levels. The first coach in the United States to earn an "A-1" license, Schellscheidt has worked with some of the country's most respected coaches, including Bruce Arena and Bob Bradley, while mentoring several players who have risen to the professional and international stage.

Schellscheidt's experience as a coach reaches beyond the collegiate level as he has been active at both the national and local level coaching senior and youth teams. At the youth level, Schellscheidt served as the Region I head coach in the Olympic Development Program until 2007 and has served as the coach of the U-14 Boys National Team since 2000. He also led the local Union Lancers' U-19 team to McGuire Cup titles in both 1987 and 1988.
